

THE SPOUT SPRING TIMES.

VOL. 1.

SPOUTSPRING, KY., OCT. 31, 1896.

NO. 41.

The following is the way two young men of Paris, Ky., have made bet on the election: If McKinley is elected, the Democrat is to walk up and down Main street dressed in a suit made of newspapers and sing a Republican campaign song. If Bryan is elected, the Republican is to stick an oak board, 12 feet long and 3 feet wide, full of pins the pins to be placed in an equal distance apart. These pins are to be taken out again, counted and replaced in the same spot in a given length of time.

New Insurance Company.

A new insurance company has been organized at Paris and Lexington by prominent local capitalist. The Bourbon News says articles of incorporation have been filed, and the idea of this company is to compete with the present combine companies which have put the rates so high as to prevent a great many people from insuring at all.
—Winchester Democrat.

A number of toll gates were recently torn down in Franklin county by toll-gate raiders. Every gate in the county is threatened.

There were three more toll-gates destroyed in Franklin county last Saturday night, and keepers notified that if they attempted to collect any more toll, the houses would be blown up or burned.

Court Day.

About 350 cattle on the market. The demand was brisk and about every thing was sold. Some 1,100 lbs. steers brought 3½ cts., which was the best price of the day. 900 to 1000 lbs., cattle brought 2½ to 3½ cents, heifers 600 to 700 lbs., 2 to 2½ cents, large bulls, 2 cents. A bunch of hogs brought 3 cents. A number of mule colts on the market; only a few were sold and they brought from $15 to $35 according to quality.—
Winchester Democrat.

A farmer by the name of Ashbury Pollitt, of Mason county, started to Maysville on the family horse which he concluded to sell. He met a man on his way to town who had killed some rabbits, and to whom he sold the horse for eighteen of the rabbits.

Mr. Carlisle Eggged at Covington.

While making a speech at Covington, in the interest of the gold standard, Mr. Carlisle was very badly rotten egged, and found it necessary to be escorted by the police to his hotel to escape the violence of a mob.

J. W. Baily, a Lincoln county farmer, took a "nubbin," as he called it, to the Stanford Journal, which had thirty rows and 1,290 grains of corn on it. He said he was afraid to bring a full grown ear as it might scare the people with its massiveness.

Must Pay Taxes.

The case of the City Council of Frankfort against the Mason-Ford Company involving $16,000 taxes sued on for the years 1886, 1887 and 1888, was reversed in the Court of Appeals, last Saturday. Judge Painter, who handed down the opinion of the court, holds that the company must pay their taxes.

A number of Bryan and free silver club boys, of Hancock county, have passed resolutions to never marry unless Bryan is elected. This resolution is a good one, and if carried out, will save many worthy women from want and starvation.

There has recently been a considerable advance in wheat and it is still rising at a most rapid rate. Some has sold already at 85 cents per bushel. The best posted people seem to think it will be worth a dollar per bushel within thirty days.

If the saying "A blanket of snow will cover the ground as deep as the rag weeds grew high in the summer" be true, we will have a pretty deep snow, as the weeds have grown from two to three feet high in the fields.

FOR SALE.
